Warsaw, 12th November, 2005

Dear Sir/Madam,

On behalf of the Institute of Public Affairs (IPA) I would like to invite you to participate in the conference 'European perspectives of Turkey and Ukraine. New members of EU and future enlargements'.

During the conference the results of the IPA research on the state of public debate and social attitudes in new member states of EU towards the Turkish and Ukrainian potential accession will be presented and discussed. Through a discussion panel the Polish top politicians will elaborate on the question of Polish views towards Turkish and Ukrainian membership in the European Union and assess arguments for and against of their EU accession.

The conference, gathering representatives of the political and scientific scene, media and foreign experts, will take place on December 5, 2005 (Monday) in the Conference Room of the 'Polityka' Weekly, 6 Słupecka str., Warsaw. Working languages of the conference will be Polish and English. The organizers provide simultaneous translation.

Please confirm your presence at the conference until December 2, 2005 to project coordinators: Ms Justyna Frelak: justyna.frelak@isp.org.pl (022/556 42 74) or Mr. Piotr Kaczyński, piotr.kaczynski@isp.org.pl (022/556 42 88).

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Lena Kolarska-Bobińska
Director of the Institute of Public Affairs
