

Dr Marta Sydoruk – Ph.D. in Economics, Consolidation Analyst, Project Manager, Assistant Professor of the Chair of International Economic Relations and Project Management at the Lesya Ukrainka Volyn National University. She studied at the Volyn National University in Lutsk (Ukraine), Graduate Faculty of the Political Science and International Affairs at the John Paul II Catholic University in Lublin (Poland), Faculty of the Political Science at Maria Curie-Skłodowska University (Poland). The author of 26 published scientific articles, including 2 scientific books written by a small number of co-authors.

Interests: European Union foreign policy with a specific focus on relations between the EU and non-member states, EU Project/Career Management.

Scholar of the Lane Kirkland Scholarships Program (Poland). Scholar of the Visegrad Scholarships Program (Slovak Republic). Scholar of the Polish National Commission for UNESCO (Poland). Scholar of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine (Ukraine).